WASHINGTON, Sept. 26, 10 a. m. To Mojor General Dix, New York:

Despatches from Gen. Sheridan at 11 o'clock Saturday night, six miles south of New Market, have been received. He had driven the enemy from Mount Jackson without being able to bring on an engagement. The enemy were moving rapidly, and he had no cavalry present to hold them.

Torbert had attacked Wickham's force at Luray, and captured a number of prisoners. Sheridan found rebel hospitals in all the towns from Winchester to New Market, and was eighty miles from Martinsburg.

Twenty pieces of artillery were captured at Fisher's Hill, eleven hundred prisoners, a large amount of ammunition, caissons, limbers, &c., a large amount of entrenching tools, small arms and debris.

No list of captured material had yet been received.

The small towns through the Valley have a great many of the enemy's wounded. Gen. Sheridan reports the arrival at Har-

Vigorous exertions were being made to over. take and destroy this force. Jeff Davis is reported to be at Macon. Re-

Movements of the Rebel Forrest-He Captures Athens, Ala., with its Garrison-His Intentions.

Louisville, Sept. 25 .- On Friday, a part of Forrest's force, about four thousand men, crossed the Tennessee river at Bates' Landing, in Perry county, Tennessee. His whole force is estimated at eight thousand, with ten guns. Colonel Campbell, and the garrison at Athens, Ala., were attacked by a large force of rebels, and after a severe fight of two hours duration, were forced to surrender. Several buildings, including the railroad depot, were set on fire.

Forrest in person was in Athens. At two p. m. vesterday a detachment of three hundred men were sent from Decatur to reinforce the garrison at Athens. It is reported they were captured after an obstinate engagement. The rebel force has destroyed several miles of the Tennessee and Alabama railroad between Decatur and Athens. There is no communication with Pulaski, Tenn. Escaped prisoners say it is reported that Wheeler's force has gone South to join Hood in Georgia, and that Forrest's intention is to capture Pulaski, Franklin and Shelbyville, and all the intermediate blockhouses on the road. At last accounts the rebels were moving on Pulaski. No demonstration has been made on the Chattanooga railroad.

GOLD .- The New York Sunday Herald thus spen as of the scenes attendant upon the heavy fall of gold on Saturday:

The panic in gold eclipsed in its fury—for we call it by no milder term—the panic in stocks, and from the opening until the close of business, which was not until five p. m., the dark and ill-ventilated room in which the market is held was densely crowded with an excited multitude, in the utmost state of physical agitation, shouting wildly at each other until the building resounded with their little less than frantic cries, which blended in wild con fusion, while, with uplifted arms and flashing eyes, they—the bulls and bears of William etreet—fought the battle of gold and struggled hard for supremacy. Bedlam let loose would have been, in the language of the classics, "un-able to hold a candle" to the scene which attended the fall of gold to 200 to-day. And after the crowd were driven from the room by the gong, "whose dreadful roar" deafened even the shouting of the combatants, the game of buying and selling was continued with re-newed vigor, as long as daylight permitted, in the open street. The first quotation of the morning was 212, from which it declined almost steadily to 2013, which was the selling price at twenty minutes to one. Immediately after this, and in the midst of the greatest confusion and excitement, a sale was made on short option at 200. The price immediately reacted, and eight minutes after one o'clock the quotation was 204. At five minutes past three it was 206 %; at half past three it had receded to 204%, and at forty minutes past four it stood at 202% a263.

RE-OPENING OF THE BALTIMORE AND OHIO RAILROAD.—The repairs to this road will be finished by to morrow afternoon, and trains, both passenger and freight, will be immediately run. It is the intention to run special burthen trains, in order that the great quanties of western produce, and the large amount of coal that have been accumulating west of Martins-burg can be brought more rapidly to this city. It is thought that about 1,50° tons of coal per day would be brought to this city for some time to come, which will go far towards supplying all demands for that article. There is nt present a large military force guarding the line of the road, and no danger from the rebels is at all apprehended.—Balt. Sun., 26th.

Rebels Advancing Into the State-Reported Occupation of Fredericktown by Joe Shelby-Price Also Moving North-Gen. Mower Moving on Shelby's Rear. St. Louis, Sept. 25 .- Joe Shelby's rebel force, said to be 4 or 5,000 strong, occupied Fredericktown, 20 miles east of Pilot Knob, yesterday. Shelby's designs is not yet developed. Gen. Ewing, commanding the district of St. Louis, took a brigade of Gen. A. J. Smith's troops down last night, and otherwise freely prepared to meet the enemy. Pilot Knob is well fortified and garrisoned.

Cape Girardeau, on the river, can stand a siege, and the only damage the rebels can do is to temporarily cut the Iron Mountain Rail-Price crossed the Arkansas river some days since, at Locust Point. His force moved toward Batesville, evidently with the design of joining Shelby in Northeast Arkansas, and with the combined commands invade Missouri from the Southeast. The force occupying Fredericktown is doubtless the advance column, which is estimated at 10,000 or 12,000. Gen. Mower, with a part of the 16th arm corps, left Brownsville, on the Davall's Bluff and Little Rock Bailroad, a few days ago, in a northeasterly direction, and Shelby will have to look sharp after his rear. The situation will probably develop itself in [SECOND DISPATCH.)

Price and Kirby Smith also moving into the State-Reported Capture of Cape Girardeau. Sr. Louis, Sept. 25 .- It is now said Price entered Missouri with a force estimated at 3,000 strong. His plan as supposed to be, to march to a central point in the State, and with three columns endeavor to capture all the important points, and hold the country.

It is expected that Kirby Smith will join him with ten to twelve thousand men from Arkan-

Guerrillas are also concentrating to aid in the movement. The column in the southwest is doubtless under Shelby who has some six to eight thousand men. Reports are circulating to-night that part of the force that occupied Frederickstown yesterday, captured Cape Girardeau to day, but this is doubtful. They may be operating in that direction, but the post is too strong to be taken General Pike has called out all the enrolled militia. Gen'l Rosecrans will issue an appeal to-morrow, calling the people to arms. FROM MOBILE BAY.

val of the guns and machinery of the Tecum-Details of the Rio Grande news show that Cortinas is still on the north side of the Rio Grande. So says the Era of the 18th. Some 300 Mexicans surrendered to Maj. Noyes, with three guns, at Palo Alto.

LOCAL NEWS. THE STAMP ROBBERY .- The Philadelphia

Inquirer of this morning has the following in relation to the stamp robbery case: "A man named Simon Strauss was commit-ted on Saturday by Mayor Henry, to answer the charge of receiving stolen pestage stamps, knowing them to be stolen. The detendant was arrested by Messrs. James R. McDevitt and John A W. Ciarvoe, of the detective po-lice force of Washington, assisted by Messrs. George Calanan and E Carlin, of the Paila-delphia detectives. The arrest was made on delphia detectives. The arrest was made on Wednesday, at which time the accused was committed for a hearing, which terminated as already stated. It seems that the Washington detectives arrested, on the 20th instant, Geo.
W. Alexander, who, until recently, was an attacke of the post office at Washington. and Benjamin F. Wilkins, who at the time of the arrest was a confidential clerk in the department. It was the business of these two prisoners to receive and destroy all damaged postage Instead of destroying them they were said to cit or parties, to the extent, it is said, of thousands of dollars. Strauss' house was thoroughly searched, and a number of letters from Alexand r, relating to the nefarious business, were found there. A few postage stamps were also

The following is the gist of the evidence elicited at the hearing before the Mayor. Mr. Walter, a special agent of the Post Office at Washington, testified that some five or six thousand stamps had been stolen from the De-partment. Benjamin F. Wilkins and George W. Alexander have been arrested and indicted for the larceny in Washington. Both had been connected with the Department. Wilkins had charge of the damaged stamps returned by postmasters.

L. R. Wharton testified that he called upon Strauss on the 18th at his house, No. 1400 Mervine street, and showed him a paper having the name of George W. Alexander upon it. After some conversation, during which Strauss became satisfied that Wharton was to be trusted, witness told him that he had some fifteen or sixteen thousand stamps which he wanted to sell, the same that Alexander had promised to bring him two weeks previously. Strauss said that it would be better if he could get $39,000 or $40,000 worth. Witness told him that he did not know whether any more could be had, but would let him know whether he could get $30,000 or $40,000 worth. Strauss admitted having got $1,800 worth of stamps from Alexander, and paid him $800, two gold watch, valued at $50 each; also, another lot, for which he had paid a valuable gold watch.

A number of letters, signed Geo. W. Alexander, found in the house of Strauss, were identified as the writing of Alexander. They referred to "business," but did not say anything in regard to the nature of it. Wm. D. Marne testified that defendant often came to his store and purchased articles; he lately offered stamps in trade, and said that he got them from a party in the book business in California; stamps amounting to $1,358 were taken; they were principally twenty-four or ninety cent stamps. George W. Russell, jeweler, testified that in November last defendant purchased goods amounting either to $90 or $100, offering in payment three-cent stamps, which he said he had got from a sutler; the stamps were taken at the face value; on December 9, 1863, defendant bought two diamond pins and a ring, but didn't pay for them for some time; on January

22, 1864, he paid the bill $56 in stamps, as agreed upon; he asked that larger stamps might be taken, as he had a lot of them; on March 1st paid another bill of $25 in stamps. Detective McDevitt, of Washington, testified that he went to Strauss' house with Detectives Callanan and Carlin, of this city, and saw Mr. Callanan take from Strauss' pocket a slip of paper with Wharton's name upon it, and also ninety-cent stamps; he also broke the picture of Alexander from an album, by permission of

Mrs. Strauss.' We learn that Detectives McDevitt and Clarvoe, who have so successfully managed the case thus far, have succeeded in recovering some $700 worth of the stolen stamps. It is believed that the robberies have been going on for some two years, and will amount to $15,000 at least. It seems that in the returned packages of quently happens that only the upper layers are stuck together and spoiled, and that the lower ones are perfect. This fact attracting the attention of the guilty parties, it is believed suggested to them the idea of defrauding the Government in the way indicated. Some eighteen months ago the fraud was very nearly exposed by some developments made in Philadelphia. The allegation was made at that time by parties, to the city post office of Philadelphia, that stamps could be purchased on the street cheaper than they could at the post office, and the inquiry was made why the post office could not sell them as cheaply as private individuals could. At that time this man Strauss was pointed out as selling stamps for less than the Government price. Some investigation was made, and Strauss gave an explanation deemed satisfactory, at any rate no further action was taken in the matter. Curiously enough the Philadelphia postal authorities at that time wrote to Wilkins in regard to the matter, (not that he was suspected, however,) and it seems remarkable that he mentioned that Cel. L. C. Baker, chief of the military detectives of the War Department had made another haul of counterfeiters. This party is composed principally of army officers, among whom is a Capt. McDonald, of a Pennsylvania regiment. Another of the party arrested was formerly an army officer, and lost a leg in the service. He is a resident of Pennsylvania, and is charged with sending countries money here to some of his friends. sylvania, and is charged with sending counterfeit money here to some of his friends in hospital. The paper which these parties have been shoving is $3 bills on the Merchant's Bank of Philadelphia and fifty cent counterfeit postal currency. The face of the fifty cent no'es is very pale, and is easily detected, but the back is a good imitation of the genuine, and if the note is presented with the back up, unsuspecting ones would be very apt to receive them.

The parties arrested have been committed to the Old Capitol, we understand, and they re-fuee to tell where or by whom the counterfeits are manufactured. Col. Baker is on the track of other parties engaged in shoving these coun-terielts, and doubtless the whole party will be brought to justice.

These notes have been circulated in the army aimost exclusively, the parties circulating the money passing it off on sutlers and enlisted
